Non-Applicant-Kamlesh K Thakkar was granted Anticipatory Bail by the order of this Court. It is pointed out that he left the country and went to Dubai in breach of the conditions of the order of this Court. This fact is not disputed by the non-applicant. However, it is submitted that the passport has been taken in possession by the P.S.I., in pursuance of the order of this Court dated 26.12.1996. Though this Court take a serious view of the breach of the conditions of the bail order, in view of the assurance given by the learned Advocate for the respondent, it is not considered for going to the question of cancellation of the bail.
